Science Program: Interagency Ecological Program (IEP) Participant

The Assistant Regional Administrator represents NOAA as the IEP Director at quarterly meetings and staff participate on various work groups such as the coordinators, management team, and various work teams. NOAA also issues the IEP ESA Research permit for NOAA trust species. The IEP is comprised of long-term monitoring, water operations monitoring and special studies. The IEP is committed to conducting the mandated monitoring studies required by NOAA and FWS biological opinions and SWRCB Water Rights Decision D-1641. There is also a commitment to continue providing the "real-time" data needed to make water operation decisions. NOAA is one of nine agencies with IEP implementation responsibility.
